

Tapash Kumar Das is a veteran Pakhawaj player, an outstanding accompanist & soloist. He was born into a Musical family in Kolkata. Since very tender age, he has been learning Tabla and Pakhawaj from his father and Guru Pandit Kalipada Das, who learnt the art of Pakhawaj from well known maestro Pandit Rajiv Lochan Dey. Tapash has been also benefited by the guidance from Pandit Biatthal Das Gujrati. Later he continued his learning under the able guidance of two maestro, Pandit Ramakant Pathak & Pandit Swapan Chowdhury.

He has participated in the most of the major music festivals all over India and USA, Canada, Austria, Italy, Germany, Mauritius, South Korea many times. He has been accompanying regularly with very eminent musicians, both vocalists and instrumentalists.

Tapash has been selected for “Fellowship for Outstanding Artist” from the Department of Culture, Government of India. He worked as a Visiting Lecturer in Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Culture, Mauritius. For a decade Tapash has been broadcasting from All India Radio, telecasting from Doordarshan India and other private T.V. Channels. Presently, he is a Guest Lecturer of Instrumental Music Department at Rabindra Bharati University, Kolkata.